

Elders Q&A 2

Defending Doctrinal Distinctives

Question 1

How does a person know whether God is calling that person to serve as a pastor/elder?

Question 2

Should Christians use people's preferred pronouns or call transgender people by their new, opposite gender names?
Should Christians ever attend a same-sex wedding?

Question 3

Is homosexuality a worse sin than other sins, and is it a sign of greater personal/societal depravity than other sins are?

Question 4

If the Calvary leadership believes that the Bible permits women to speak in the main worship service, why don't we see that at Calvary?

Question 5

What exactly is meant by the term “submission” in the context of the wife’s role in marriage? Is it essentially the same as “obedience”? What does this look like practically?

Question 6

How is abuse (whether verbal, emotional, physical, psychological and of varying levels of severity) viewed and handled by the church? Does a wife have to submit to an abusive husband?

Follow Up Questions?

Next Time:
Pre-millennial Return of Christ